Community Health Worker
FLSA Status: Non-Exempt
Job Classification: Community Health Worker
Grades: 1-4
Reports to: Program Manager or Program Director
Revised: July 23, 2019

Weekend and evening work are required per program and community needs.

Significant local travel is required and driven by programmatic requirements per organizational procedures.

Essential Functions

- Performs all functions and activities within the guidelines and philosophy set forth in MHP Salud’s Strategic Plan, policies, mission, goals and vision.
- Provides peer health education and support to the families within designated areas.
- Provides outreach in the community in ways that are most effective for the population and program. Outreach will include door-to-door activities, working out of community centers, community events and other activities within the community.
- Participates as a member of various teams as needed.
- Actively participates in, and successfully completes, training provided by MHP Salud and other agencies.
- Provides peer health education through individual encounters and home visits to assess client needs and concerns as they relate to their family, their community and their health and provide health information and education.
- Plans and leads group sessions and discussions on assigned health topics.
- Plans and organizes health fairs and other public events.
- Makes referrals to family support, health, and social services agencies in areas and follows up with individual to ensure they receive needed services.
- Assist with completing applications for assistance (SNAP) as needed and providing follow up to assure services are received.
- Provide ongoing support and services of clients as needed.
- Reduces stigma and other barriers to initiating or continuing health care by educating both community members and health care providers.
- Develops relationships with local health care and social services providers and provides them with trainings or information to help them better serve the community.
- Represents organization in meetings with providers, clients, and others.
- Participates in networking and collaboration meetings that address the concerns of the assigned program area and the organization.
- Collect data and information as required by the evaluation plan and processes. Provides feedback to evaluation team and program management on evaluation process issues.
- Uses assigned technology to complete job functions effectively.
- Attends conferences and presents as directed and/or assigned.
• Plan work in consultation with supervisor including obtaining proper material within the necessary time frame, loading gift cards for organizational purposes, tracking purchases per organizational processes, and ensuring group logistics are completed.
• Ensure program resources are applied responsibly in carrying out program goals.
• Works independently and collaboratively as needed to carry out program goals.
• Schedules work in collaboration with supervisor to meet community needs.
• Assists in completing other program goals and requirements.
• Coordinates activities within the program as needed.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities

• Ability to communicate easily with others, including demonstrating active listening skills.
• Demonstrate group facilitation skills.
• Demonstrate flexibility in addressing changing community needs and program environment.
• Ability to maintain confidentiality.
• Ability to navigate the social service system and advocate for others.
• Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
• Ability to plan, organize work, and manage time effectively
• Ability to frequently lift and/or move up to 10 pounds and occasionally lift and/or move up to 50 pounds
• Demonstrates initiative and good judgment in work.
• Displays empathy, respect, and understanding of community resources, programmatic goals, and understanding of organizational values and processes.

Required Education and Experience

• Knowledge and/or part of community served.
• Read, write, and speak Spanish and English strongly preferred; fluency in spoken Spanish required.
• Community Health Worker (CHW) Certification is preferred. Active Certification is a requirement of ongoing employment if certification is active.
• Information Technology skills such as: Laptops, Smartphones, Internet/online application systems, Microsoft Office, etc.
• Experience in community work, education, health care, or related field preferred.
• Reliable transportation, valid driver's license, and insurance required on vehicle used for work purposes (employee must be listed on insurance).
• TB test must be current.

This job description is subject to change at any time.